A special bulletin on the Chinese Summer School has been published. (June 22–August 31) It will be sent on request.

For the Graduate Schools Abroad, see the inside back cover of this bulletin.
History  The Middlebury College Language Schools were the pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern languages in this country. The German School was founded in 1915, followed by the French and Spanish Schools in 1916 and 1917 respectively. The German School was reopened in 1931; the Italian School was added in 1932, and the Russian School in 1945. These schools have made a distinctive contribution to educational progress in America, and won for Middlebury an international reputation.

The Middlebury Idea.  Thorough training in the use of the foreign language is the foundation of Middlebury's reputation. These five schools aim to give a mastery of the spoken and written language, and a coordinated knowledge of the life, institutions, literature, history, and culture of the foreign country. The basic Middlebury rule is strictly enforced—the segregation of students from contact with English; complete concentration upon the foreign language; exclusive use of the language in and out of the classroom; and careful attention to the individual needs of each student. Each school has its separate residences and dining halls and a faculty of native instructors. During the entire session, the foreign language is the sole medium of communication in work and play. From the day of arrival, students are pledged to speak the foreign language.

Objectives  The schools have long been devoted to the intensive preparation of teachers of languages. At present, the serious shortage of well-trained language teachers makes this function even more significant. The schools have also provided trained linguists for our armed services, for many specialized government agencies, and for scientific research. Language training is essential for those who participate in international organizations, whether political, military, or cultural. It is now recognized that a greatly increased study of foreign languages by the American public is in the national interest. Middlebury offers ideal conditions for such study. The fundamental ideal of the Language Schools of Middlebury College is to help achieve a durable peace and real international cooperation, based on an understanding of our cultural heritage and the thought processes of our neighbors in a small world.
Location  The Middlebury Language Schools are located in a lovely Vermont countryside, at the foot of the Green Mountains, fifteen miles from Lake Champlain. They occupy the campus of Middlebury College, founded in 1800 and still one of the most charming of New England colleges. The summer climate is delightful, with clear dry breezes and cool nights.

No college in the East offers more attractive opportunities for out-of-door recreation. The program of studies leaves late afternoons and week ends free. Groups of students frequently spend an afternoon hiking in the mountains, swimming at Lake Dunmore or in the college indoor pool. Tennis and golf are available. Lake Champlain, Mount Mansfield, Ticonderoga, the Adirondacks, Lake Placid, or the White Mountains: any of these can be visited in a day's trip.

Atmosphere  The schools endeavor to make everything in the life of a student during his stay contribute as effectively and as pleasantly as possible to the mastery of the foreign language. Similarity of aim among students fosters good comradeship and an esprit de corps; while constant association with instructors at the dining tables, in songs and games, on hikes and picnics, no less than in the classroom, brings both inspirational and intellectual stimulus. Programs of musical concerts, informal sings, foreign films, dramatics, outings and sports are organized.

Admission  All the schools are graduate schools. The courses require advanced preparation and real linguistic ability. A very few undergraduate majors may be accepted if they have exceptional preparation. Students may enter without examinations and without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited to their advancement. Students are admitted for one summer only, and must reapply for any succeeding summer.

The Pledge  No student will be admitted to a school unless he is able and willing to use only the language of the school, during the entire session, wherever he may be. This rule, which is a cherished and unique tradition of the schools, and a fundamental of the Middlebury method, is consistently enforced from the moment the student enrolls. It holds good for the individual dormitory rooms, all extra-curricular activities, and excursions. It is all-inclusive. Students may use English in their dealings with the people of the village, but even in these cases, students must not speak English to each other. At the opening of the schools, each student will be required to sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The right is reserved to dismiss students who willfully break it. Only the director or the dean may grant temporary release, upon occasions which may warrant it. If, even after the opening of school, a student is found to be unable to comply with the rules of the school, the administration reserves the right to request him to withdraw and to refund the fees paid.

Academic Status The quality of instruction offered at the Middlebury Schools is well known. As compared with foreign travel or study, a summer session here is more economical, provides courses better suited to the needs of American teachers, and gives an intensive training not found in foreign institutions. Such study furnishes the indispensable preparation for profitable study in the foreign land. The summer of 1965 brought students from forty-eight different states and eleven foreign countries. Three hundred sixty-six colleges and universities in the United States were represented, as well as universities in 20 foreign countries. Over 93% of the students held degrees, and over 17% held the Master’s degree or the Doctorate. The majority of the students are candidates for advanced degrees. Three hundred twenty-four Master’s degrees were awarded in August, 1965, including those from the Schools Abroad.

Equipment The Sunderland Language Center, newly completed in 1965, is shared by all the schools, and all students use it free of charge. It is equipped with the most modern facilities for language learning. The sound-proof air-conditioned individual practice cubicles are each provided with a console combining two tape recording and playback machines, permitting the student to work individually on his own exercise, at his own preferred speed and time. The Center also has large collections of literary recordings on tapes and discs. Audiovisual classrooms are equipped for film-strip and synchronized slide showings, recording and playback. The Dana Auditorium provides for concerts, lectures, motion pictures, and panel discussions. All students, especially those in charge of a Language Laboratory, are invited to consult with Professor Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, in his office in the Center, by appointment.

The College Library, with its new wings, has extensive collections of books and magazines in all five foreign languages. All students have stack privileges. Each school has its own Bookshop, bringing attractive offerings of books direct from the foreign country. Each school also presents its own collection of realia, illustrative material, and teaching aids.

The Wright Memorial Theatre, near Le Château, with its fine auditorium, complete modern dramatics equipment, and classrooms, is shared by all the schools.

Credits Each course meeting daily carries two semester hours of credit. Students who wish credits, transcripts, or recommendations must take the final examinations at the close of the session. Not more than six credits may be gained in one summer by an undergraduate, and not more than eight credits by a graduate student. The passing grade is 80 for a graduate student, 70 for an undergraduate.

The Master’s Degree  A student who wishes to become a candidate for an advanced degree at Middlebury College must apply for it, submitting the necessary documents, including proof of the A.B. degree from an approved American college, or other degree which may be accepted by the Council as its equivalent. Enrollment in a school or the passing of graduate courses in it does not constitute acceptance as a candidate for a degree. Students cannot be accepted as candidates for the bachelor’s degree.

The Middlebury Master’s degree in a foreign language requires an approved program of thirty credits, of which twenty must be earned in residence. The degree may be completed in three summers if six or more credits are transferred from other institutions. Transcripts submitted for such transfer should be sent to the school before the opening of the session, and prior approval of the study should be secured when possible. Transfer credits expire ten years after the date of the completion of the study. Effective with students who begin graduate work after 1956, graduate credits earned at Middlebury College toward a Master’s degree expire and no longer be so counted after ten years have elapsed since the study was done. Study in a foreign country in courses approved by the dean may be counted. Six credits may be allowed for an equivalent of ninety hours of class exercises followed by examinations. Six credits is the maximum allowed for a single summer session of foreign study. Twenty credits must be earned in the major language; ten may be earned in related subjects approved by the dean. A qualified undergraduate may be permitted to accumulate a maximum of twelve graduate credits applicable toward an eventual Master’s degree at Middlebury. Students desiring to count credits taken at Middlebury toward degrees to be secured elsewhere should obtain permission to do so from the institution to which they wish the credits transferred. Degrees are conferred in August or at the Commencement following the completion of the work. A graduation fee of $15 is required.

The Degree of Doctor of Modern Languages  Middlebury College also offers, through the Language Schools, the advanced degree of Doctor of Modern Languages (D.M.L.). The main requirements are a thorough knowledge of a major language and its literature; two minor languages; the equivalent of a year’s resident study beyond the Master’s degree; a year of study in a foreign country; and a thesis written in the major language. Full details will be sent on request.

Living Accommodations  Students live in the college dormitories, and board is provided by the college. All rooms are completely furnished by the college; blankets, sheets and towels are supplied. Arrangements for personal laundry may be made after arrival. No accommodations for married couples are available. Students are not encouraged to live in town, because in doing so they fail to receive the full benefit of the Middlebury method. Students who may have a valid reason for preferring to live in town must receive permission from the dean of their school. Since dormitory accommodations are limited, students are urged to apply very early, even in the preceding autumn. The right is reserved to close applications in any school at any time after February 15, although cancellations may make room for later acceptances from a waiting list. Acceptance as a student does not guarantee dormitory accommodation.

Health Service  The Infirmary on campus is directed by a resident graduate nurse. She holds regular office hours, and is on call at all times in case of emergency. This service is free to all enrolled students. When the nature of a student's illness requires the services of a doctor, or hospitalization, or special medication, the student assumes all the financial obligations involved, as his fees to the college do not cover them. The tuition fee includes an accident insurance policy with limited coverage. No special diets can be arranged.

Transportation  Middlebury is halfway between Burlington and Rutland, Vermont. Students not arriving by automobile may make bus connections on the Greyhound and Vermont Transit Lines in New York City, Albany, Boston, or Burlington. Bus timetables will be provided on request. There is no railroad passenger service direct to Middlebury. There is scheduled airplane service to Burlington from Boston via Northeast Airlines and from New York via Mohawk Airlines. Baggage should be sent by railway express.

Opening of the Session  All the schools will open the session of 1966 on Friday, July 1, and will continue until August 18. The houses of residence will open to receive students on Friday, July 1, and lunch will be served at 12:30 p. m. No guests can be received earlier. Members of the faculty, and waiters or waitresses may occupy their rooms on Thursday night, June 30. All houses close after lunch, Thursday noon, August 18, and no guests can be accommodated after that time. Commencement exercises will be held on Tuesday evening, August 16.

Enrollment Procedure  Upon arrival, each student must report to the office of his school for enrollment and selection of courses. The offices will be open on Friday and Saturday, July 1 and 2. Students should then pay their bill at the Office of the Cashier on the first floor of Old Chapel. The Language Schools Office is on the second floor of the Sunderland Language Center. The first assemblies of the schools are held on Sunday evening, July 3. Classes begin at 8:00 a. m., Monday, July 4.

Fees  The administration reserves the right to make any changes without notice in courses, staff, living arrangements, etc. The following information about fees should be carefully noted.
Rates Rates in all the schools vary according to single or double occupancy of rooms. The inclusive fee for registration, tuition, board and room will be from $475 to $530. The tuition fee for students rooming in town is $275. A student's entire bill is payable at the opening of the session. A bill will be sent in due time, and students are urgently advised to avoid inconvenience by paying it in advance by mail; otherwise bringing all money for fees in the form of money orders, express checks, or cashier's checks. Checks should be made payable to Middlebury College.

Registration Fee Each accepted applicant must pay a $50 registration fee when requested by the Language Schools Office. This fee will be credited to the student's total bill and an applicant is considered officially registered only when he has paid this fee. It is required of every student. No dormitory space is assigned until this fee is received. This fee will be refunded only if notice of cancellation is received by the Secretary of the Language Schools before May first; after May 1 no refund will be made.

Auditors All courses in a school are open to auditing at any time without charge by members of that school, or by members of another of the Language Schools on permission of both the respective deans. Visitors to Middlebury, not members of a school, may be permitted to enroll as auditors, on payment of the fee of $35 a week or $125 for four or more weeks, arrangements to be made in the Language Schools Office. All such auditors are not entitled to take part in class discussions, nor to receive the attention of the professor. Auditors may also attend social events and evening entertainments. Guests of students cannot be accommodated in the college dormitories.

Enrollment in Two Schools A student enrolled in one school may also enroll for credit in another school, on payment of an additional fee of $35 per course, if by reason of his proficiency, he receives the consent of the deans of both schools. This privilege is subject to the limitations of staff and space, and may not be available in certain heavily elected courses. Students interested in a particular course should inquire in advance.

Late Enrollment All students are required to enroll and pay all fees not later than July 5. Enrollment after that day will be accepted only by special permission secured in advance from the dean, and will be subject to a fine of $3.00 for the first day and $1.00 additional for each day late during the first week of classes, after which no enrollments will be accepted. Rooms reserved for students will not be held after July 5 unless permission has been secured in advance from the dean.

Transcript Fees One official transcript of a summer's work will be issued without charge on written request to the College Registrar. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript. No transcripts will be issued or grades given to students financially indebted to the college, until satisfactory arrangements have been made at the office of the Cashier.

Refunds Owing to fixed obligations for instruction and maintenance, persons arriving late or leaving school before the close of the session must not expect reimbursement of any charges. No allowances will be made for week-end absences.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College; Middlebury, Vermont 05753. The telephone number is Area 802-388-4903. Correspondence concerning admissions to a particular school, courses, credits and self-help should be addressed to the Director or Dean of the school concerned.
The French School celebrated last summer its fiftieth year of existence with a particularly brilliant session, highlighted by the presence on the campus of His Excellency M. Louis Joxe, French Minister of State. This summer it expects to embark upon its second half-century with ever more solid achievements.

There will be two Visiting Professors coming from France. One will be the most recent Prix Goncourt, M. Jacques Borel, who will give a course on Verlaine and his poetical lineage. The other, M. Robert Kanters, one of the really authoritative critics in France, will present a picture of the most recent developments in the New Novel and New Criticism. The Visiting Lectureship, successfully inaugurated last summer, will shine with a particular brilliance: Professor Henri Peyre will offer five lectures on a Reappraisal of French Romanticism.

Two assistants at the Sorbonne, MM. Pierre Arnaud and Michel Haar will come to give courses on the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries. In fact, no period of French Literature will be neglected. Medieval Studies will be reactivated under the direction of Professor Joseph Palermo. Dean Claude Bourcier, taking a furlough from his traditional course on French Civilization, will offer a study of P. Claudel. The theatrical activities will be again directed by M. Roland Monod who will also give a course on the Contemporary Theatre. The course on Linguistics and its applications will again be given by the Director, Professor Jean Boorsch of Yale, with some refinements and improvements. Finally the facilities of the new Sunderland Language Center will be used to the full for the teaching of phonetics and audio-visual methods under the competent guidance of MM. André Malécot and James Watkins.

COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

11. ADVANCED FRENCH STYLISTICS. Designed to give advanced students a finer feeling for French style, a sense for shades of meaning, a mastery of certain difficulties not discussed in more elementary courses. Theoretical lessons in stylistics; advanced exercises in translation and composition. Strictly limited to fifteen students. 9:00 M. TERRIER.

12. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. For students who, having a good knowledge of French, have not yet mastered certain peculiarities of syntax and phrasing. Texts of increasing difficulty translated into French; a few compositions; class discussions. Sections limited to fifteen students. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 MM. GUIET, RAMBAUD, TERRIER. MME VINCENT.

13. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. Study of the more complex points of grammar. Intensive practice in writing; weekly French themes. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 M. LÉVY, MMES FOUREL, VADON. MMLE NOEL.

Note: A written test will be given early in all the Language Courses. According to the results of this test, students will be assigned to the proper section of the course in which they registered, or to another course in this group.

II. Phonetics and Diction

21. DICTION, INTONATION, ELOCUTION. Intended to complete the work done in phonetics. Aims to impart, not an artificial pronunciation, but the expressive and musical shading for French diction, used in ordinary conversation as well as in public reading or speaking. Two sections (9:00 and 10:00, limited to twelve students) will work especially on dramatic texts. Previous training in Phonetics required. 9:00, 10:00, 12:00 MM. MONOD, MMLE MENOT.

22. ADVANCED PHONETICS. For students with a good knowledge of phonetics and a sufficiently correct pronunciation. Aims to teach the pronunciation accepted among cultivated French people, and to illustrate the practical application of the theory of phonetics to its teaching. 9:00, 10:00 M. MALÉCOT
23. INTERMEDIATE PHONETICS. A continued study of practical phonetics, with its application to personal pronunciation. Correct formation of French sounds, sounds in isolation and combination, oral exercises and ear training.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00

M. Malécot, Mme Mélat, Mles Alloin, Menot.

24. ELEMENTARY PHONETICS. A scientific approach to French pronunciation. Methodical comparison of French and English sounds. For students who never studied phonetics, or never attacked the problem of their pronunciation in a scientific manner.

(Undergraduate credit only).

10:00 Mille Alloin

Notes: 1. In all Phonetics and Diction Classes, placement tests will be given at the beginning, and each section will be limited to fifteen students.

2. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, intensive audio-oral training is provided, and all students are required to make regular use of the facilities of the Language Center.

III. Methods and Professional Training

31. THE TEACHING OF FRENCH IN HIGH SCHOOL. A study of the rationale and techniques for the teaching and evaluation of the language skills at the various stages of instruction. Review of linguistic, psychological, and pedagogical principles. Special emphasis upon the content and methodology at the intermediate and advanced levels, including the teaching of literature, culture, and civilization. Evaluation of textbooks, readers, and audio-visual materials.

Demonstration class: Tues., Th. 2:15-3:15.

34. AUDIO-VISUAL MEDIA AND LANGUAGE LABORATORY METHODS. Intended: 1). to acquaint the student with the various technical aids of the language laboratory and their manipulation; 2). to assess their potentialities and limitations; and 3). to discuss their application to the diverse aspects and levels of language teaching.

12:00 M. Watkins.

36. THE FIRST TWO YEARS OF FRENCH IN COLLEGE. Intensity for students beginning, and diversity among those continuing French in College pose specific problems. The course proposes to examine certain solutions in the light of new materials, methods and aids.

8:00 M. Watkins.

Note: All the students of the School, especially teachers or students interested in teaching, are invited to avail themselves of the Consultation Service offered, through individual appointments, by Professor Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, in his office at the Language Center.

IV. Linguistics, Literature and Civilization

42. LINGUISTICS. ITS HISTORY, CONTENT, AND APPLICATIONS. The course will strive to give a panoramic view of the linguistic science, so much talked about, and so little known. Delving rapidly into its history, it will dwell on its main components, its results, and its possible uses by teachers. The European as well as the American points of view will be objectively presented. The course will avoid excessively technical language without sacrificing substance, and will try to combine wide cultural views and professional usefulness. Required for the D.M.L.

8:00 M. Boorsch.
50. HISTORY OF THE FRENCH LANGUAGE (MEDIAEVAL PERIOD). A study of the origins of the French language and the history of its development to the end of the fifteenth century. Analysis of early texts and readings in Old and Middle French. 9:00 M. PALERMO.

51. LITERATURE OF THE MIDDLE AGES. A survey of mediaeval French literature, including particularly a study of cultural and literary innovation in France from the ninth through the fifteenth centuries. Readings in the principal genres in modern French translation: Chanson de Roland; Tristan et Iseut; Roman de la Rose; Vélian; Fables; Poésie Lyrique; Théâtre comique. 11:00 M. PALERMO.

52. RABELAIS ET LES CONTEURS DU XVIeme SIECLE. The novels and short stories of Rabelais, Marguerite de Navarre, Bonaventure des Périers and Noël du Fail will be studied from the double point of view of their intellectual content and their artistic value. 10:00 M. VADON.

53. DESCARTES, PASCAL AND FRENCH THOUGHT FROM 1630 TO 1670. The course will study the birth of cartesian rationalism, the main marginal currents of thought (sceptique chrétienne; libertinage érudit; épécurisme) and the ferment of Pascalian faith. 8:00 M. HAAR.

54. THEATER AND SOCIETY IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. The course will analyze the connection between 18th century theater and the general evolution of society, in order to illustrate the part played by the stage in the development of the Age of Enlightenment. Besides the theoretical writings of Diderot, Beaumarchais and J. J. Rousseau, the course will study the main plays of Regnard, Lesage, Marivaux, Diderot, Sedaine and Beaumarchais. 10:00 M. RAMBAUD.

55. FRENCH ROMANTICISM: A REAPPRAISAL. Professor H. Peyre will deliver five magistral lectures during the second week. These are open to everyone. M. Haar will direct on a free schedule the essays on related subjects which the students enrolled in the course will present. The five lectures will discuss: 1. The originality of French romanticism. 2. The aspiration toward the past and the elsewhere. 3. Anguish and revolt. 4. From the sub-human to the super-human. 5. Is Romanticism still alive? 4:00, second week, M. PEYRE. Directed studies: M. HAAR.

56. INTELLECTUAL ORIGINS OF CONTEMPORARY FRENCH CIVILIZATION. From the vantage point of the half-century before and after 1900, the course will examine the origins and characteristics of the main currents of thought presently at work in the changing world of modern French society. 10:00 M. ARNAUD.

57. FORERUNNERS OF SOCIAL SCIENCE IN THE XIXth CENTURY. The course will study the founders of sociological science, Auguste Comte and Emile Durkheim, without neglecting the other original minds who have blazed the trails of research on Man in Society: Saint-Simon, Tocqueville, Le Play, Proudhon, Taine and G. de Tarde. 12:00 M. ARNAUD.

58. PAUL VERLAINE AND HIS POETICAL LINEAGE. Starting with the oniric creations of Nerval, the dreamlike evocations of Hugo and the modern alchemy of Baudelaire, the course will trace the origins and development of Verlaine's rêverie. Through the Poèmes Saturniens, Les Fêtes Galantes, La Bonne Chanson, Romances sans Paroles, Sagesse and Parallèlement, will be shown the relation of rêverie with panic impulses, impressionism, and the opposite exorcisms of eroticism and faith. The heritage of Verlaine will be studied in Eluard, Supervielle, and Fargue. 11:00 M. BOREL.
59. PAUL CLAUDEL, THE POET. By means of lectures, students' oral lessons, and "explications de textes," the course will examine the poetry of this major figure of 20th century letters, and relate it to its linguistic, esthetic, philosophical, and religious connotations and implications. The texts studied will be taken from the following works: Connaissance de l’Est, L’Art poétique, Cinq Grandes Odes, Processional pour saluer le siècle nouveau, La Cantate à trois voix, Positions et propositions. (Edition recommandée: Oeuvre poétique, 1 vol.; Œuvres en prose, 1 vol.; Collection de La Pléiade, Gallimard).

9:00 M. BOURCIER.

60. THE ESSENCE OF NOVELTY IN CONTEMPORARY LITERATURE. In the last fifteen years a literary rebellion has arisen in the name of novelty and renewal: nouveau roman, théâtre nouveau, poésie nouvelle, nouvelle critique. What are the purpose and the nature of these movements? Are they meeting success or failure? Do they really reflect a new conception of literature? Such are the questions which the course will try to clarify.

12:00 M. KANTERS.

61. MAN AND MEMORY IN THE CONTEMPORARY THEATER. A discussion of the theme of Remembrance of Things Past as presented on the stage, illustrated by a precise study of four modern plays: Giraudoux, Siegfried; M. Duras, Les Viaducs de la Seine-et-Oise; Ionesco, Victimes du devoir; A. Gatti, La Vie Imaginaire de l’Éboueur Auguste G.

9:00 M. MONOD.

63. EXPLICATION DE TEXTES. Reading and interpretation of French texts, according to a method extensively used in French schools and universities. Demonstrations and criticisms by the instructor, preparation and oral practice by the students. The texts chosen will extend from the seventeenth to the nineteenth century, included.

8:00 M. VADON.

Note: All students, especially doctorate candidates, who are working on a problem of literary research or any other academic project, should not fail to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Personal interviews and consultations will be arranged with members of the staff who specialize in the same field.

V. Oral Practice

71. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Carefully screened sections, limited to ten students. Intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. A detailed program for each hour; prepared discussions on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation and the building of discussion skills. (Required for the Master’s Degree).

8:00, 9:00, 11:00, 12:00 MMES GENO, TERRIER.

72. PATTERNS OF CONVERSATIONAL FRENCH. A systematic course on the graduate level for students who already possess a real degree of oral fluency but need to acquire the habit of spoken language patterns which will make possible a spontaneity in self-expression. Students are rigorously screened at enrollment time and during the first class meetings, and sections are strictly limited to ten qualified students.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 MMES ORANGERS, Mlle MASSARDIER.

75. VOCABULARY AND ORAL PRACTICE. A systematic course, based on a daily two-hour plan, for students who understand French readily but need to gain confidence and efficiency in speaking. The students will: 1. attend a required general meeting, for a thorough study of the topic and the materials to be used the next day in the practice sessions; 2. in these sections, carry on actual conversations on the topics and with the material presented on the preceding day.

General meeting at 8:00 M. GUILLOTON.

Sections: 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 M. GUILLOTON, MMES EDELSTEIN, SERVET.
Enrollment in all Oral Practice courses is on a tentative basis. At the end of the first week, students will be assigned to the proper course, according to their ability.

CURRICULUM REGULATIONS

Credits. Courses 11 (Stylistics) and 12 (Advanced Composition) may, with the consent of the Dean, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of the course is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees. Candidates for the Master’s degree must pass, before completion of their work, one advanced course at least in each of the following fields: Language (12 or 11), Phonetics (23 or 22), Methods (31, 34 or 36), Civilization (56 or 57), and Oral Practice (71), and earn not less than six credits in advanced courses in Literature. Students who transfer credits for equivalent courses taken elsewhere may request release from the corresponding requirements. A special leaflet, sent on request, gives the rules governing the degree of Master of Arts in French. (For the D.M.L., see page 8).

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of French No student will be admitted unless he is able and willing to use only French at all times, during the seven weeks of the session. Each student, when enrolled, will sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The School reserves the right to refuse admission, at the opening of the session, to any student who fails to satisfy this basic requirement, and to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule. (See page 6).

Consultations The office of the Director is in the Sunderland Language Center; that of the Dean is in Le Château. The entire staff of the School is at the disposal of all students for counselling, at regular consultation hours announced early in the session, or by appointment.

Books The collections of French books, in the College Library and the Château contain over 12,000 volumes dealing with all phases of French study—language, literature, history, civilization, art, and teaching methods.

General supplies, dictionaries and textbooks published in this country can be purchased at the College Bookstore, in Proctor Hall. La Librairie française, in the Château, attempts to reproduce a bookshop in France, handling French classics and reference works, but specializing in contemporary novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.

Realia Museum A unique collection of illustrative material—provincial costumes, models of regional houses, dolls, Guignol accessories, children’s books, magazines, games, posters, postcards and photographs, also extensive files of other suggestions, and appropriate addresses—is on display, and may be consulted during regular daily hours.

Equipment For a description of the new Sunderland Language Laboratory, see page 7. In addition, the School is well supplied with all types of diversified equipment—maps, charts, film strips and slides on Père Ubu: Hé! sires soldats, faites attention, ne tirez pas par ici, il y a du monde!

(Alfred Jarry's Ubu Roi, as staged last year by the French School)

French geography, history and art. Movies of an instructional nature are shown and discussed. Extensive use is made of mimeographed or lithographed material, each class being supplied with outlines, bibliographies, and exercises, free or at nominal cost.

Planned Activities  The organized activities of the School are designed to make the life of the students as enjoyable and as profitable as possible:

Formal lectures, or informal "causeries," are occasionally presented by the Director, other professors, or visiting guest lecturers.

A weekly "Gazette" is published by the School, giving advance notice of all interesting events, information about job openings, etc.

Every Sunday morning, the College Chapel is used by the French School for an hour of instrumental and vocal music, and readings from spiritual or philosophical writings. The French School Choir of one hundred voices is a celebrated feature.

In cooperation with the other Language Schools, the French School also presents foreign moving pictures, on Wednesday afternoons and evenings, and chamber music or vocal concerts by guest artists, on Sunday evenings.

Picnics, community sings, sports, and a picturesque buffet lawn-supper afford occasions for continued association with the faculty and easy, spontaneous use of the language. Above all, the School is able to offer five dramatic presentations during the summer, usually on Friday nights. Carefully prepared, with painstaking attention to scenery, lighting, costuming, and staging, they always attract a large and appreciative audience, provide relaxation, and acquaint the teacher-students with simple yet effective plays that can be duplicated in their own schools without undue effort.

Dormitories The main dormitories of the French School are Le Château, Forest Hall, and Battell North, Center and South.

The identifying feature of the French School, and a cherished landmark of the campus, le Château was inspired by the Pavillon Henri IV of the palace of Fontainebleau. It contains two salons, two classrooms, a library, and the offices of the Dean.

In Forest Hall, one of the finest dormitories on the campus, all rooms are single. It also has beautiful reception and dining rooms.

Battell North, Center and South, on the approach to the Château, are built in a modified Georgian style, with pleasant rooms of modern design.

Dining Halls In the three dining halls of the School, the students gather at small tables, with a member of the staff presiding. Students and staff members rotate according to a prearranged schedule, enabling all to get better acquainted.

Scholarships A certain number of scholarships, usually covering part or all of the tuition fee, are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, included in the total number of available scholarships, and made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

Two James Richardson Scholarships, by Mrs. James Richardson of Providence, R. I.;

The Stella Christie Scholarship, by Mrs. C. C. Conover of Kansas City;

Several scholarships, by anonymous donors;

An unspecified number of scholarships, by the French Government;

A Mlle Lea Binand Scholarship, established by Mrs. Robert Christie, of Montclair, N. J., in honor of a member of long standing of the French School and the Middlebury College French Department Faculties, to be awarded through l'Amicale de Middlebury;

Two $100 and three full-tuition scholarships, by L'Amicale de Middlebury:

the Edith Packer Scholarship, in memory of a friend of long standing of the French School, one of the founders of L'Amicale;

the John D. Brennan Scholarship, in memory of one of the first members of L'Amicale, a French School graduate, prematurely deceased in a promising teaching career; and the Vincent Guilloton Scholarship, in honor of the former Director of the School, now retired after fifteen years of devoted and successful service.

Self-Help The only other way in which a student may assist in defraying his expenses is by waiting on table in the French dining halls, or by helping with kitchen work. Remuneration may vary, depending on the type of work done, but will, at least, cover the expense of board.

Scholarship and Self-Help Applications Application blanks for either form of financial aid may be obtained from the Dean's Office. They must be filed before April 1st in order to be considered for the first listing of awards. Announcement of awards is made about April 15.

Graduate School in France  Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of French in France. A selected group of graduate students spends the academic year enrolled at the University of Paris, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College for the Middlebury Master of Arts degree. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Amicale de Middlebury  This Association of Alumni, Professors, Students and Friends of the French School is destined to maintain the spirit of fellowship and comradeship among all those who have been associated with the School, or who approve of its aims; and to promote activities designed to further those aims. Particulars will be sent on request.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning admission to the school, courses, credits, degrees, scholarships, self-help and the 'Amicale' should be addressed to the Dean of the French Summer School, Le Château, Middlebury, Vt.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt.
Deutsche Schule

(FROM JULY 1 TO AUGUST 18)

The Middlebury German School, which will hold its thirty-ninth session this summer, is the forerunner of all the Middlebury Language Schools. It was founded in 1915 by Professor Marian P. Whitney and Professor Lilian L. Stroebe, both of Vassar College. Dr. Stroebe was its Director until 1917. When the School reopened in the summer of 1931, Professor Ernst Feise of the Johns Hopkins University was appointed its Director, and the School was located in the village of Bristol. Upon the retirement of Dr. Feise in 1948, Dr. Werner Neuse, who had been Dean of the School since 1932, was appointed Director. The School returned to the Middlebury Campus in 1951, where it occupies as its center Pearsons Hall, in which it was begun fifty-one years ago.

Three prominent guest lecturers will come direct from Germany and Switzerland. We are happy to announce the re-appointment of Professor Dr. Wolfgang Panzer, emeritus Director of the Geographische Institut at the Johannes Gutenberg-Universität at Mainz. He will once more lecture on the Regional Geography of Central Europe, and his other lecture course will treat Landschaft und Volkstum in Deutschland.

Professor Gerhart Kayser likewise hails from the Johannes Gutenberg-Universität where he has a chairmanship for German at the Dolmetscherinstitut in Germersheim which is part of the University proper. He will lecture on the Eighteenth Century Drama and hold a seminar on Goethe’s Faust.

Dr. Elisabeth Brock-Sulzer is a well-known drama critic for the former Swiss journal “Trivium” and today’s German and Swiss newspapers and publications (“Die Tat,” “Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung,” “Theater heute”). In her lectures she will interpret the Swiss writer Friedrich Dürrenmatt, and her seminar will consist of Stylistic Interpretations from the seventeenth century to the present.

COURSES OF STUDY

I. Literature

13A. GERMAN DRAMA OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. Interpretation of the most important plays of the Age of Enlightenment, Sturm und Drang, and the Classical Age with emphasis on the plays of Lessing, Schiller, and Goethe. Analysis of general content and of special scenes of certain plays is part of the interpretation.

10:00 Herr Mayer.

21. GOETHE’S FAUST. An interpretation of both parts of the drama, with attention to its sources and genesis (Faustbuch, Puppenspiel, Urfaust, etc.) and to the life and thought of the poet. (Seminar course with limited enrollment; only advanced students admitted.)

11:00 Herr Mayer.

23. GOETHE’S LYRICS. Introduction to Goethe’s lyrical works, interpretations and analyses of his poems, from the Annette Lieder to the Marienbader Elegie. Special emphasis will be laid on the lyrical cycles (Roman elegies, ballads, West-östlicher Divan).

11:00 Herr Petersen.

31. DRAMATISTS OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. This course will deal with the plays by German playwrights after the death of Goethe (Grabbe, Büchner, Hebbel, Ludwig, and others) and by such Austrian dramatists as Raimund, Anzengruber, and the young Hofmannsthal.

11:00 Fräulein Jolles.
35. NINETEENTH CENTURY FICTION. 'Novellen' and stories of authors of the age of realism (Keller, Meyer, Storm, and others) will be read and discussed. The reading and speaking ability of the participants will be developed gradually. (Introductory literature course not open to advanced students.)

8:00, 12:00 Fräulein Ettenberger, Herr Schacher.

35B. THEODOR FONTANE. A selected number of Fontane's novels will be read, analysed, and discussed in this special study of the great nineteenth century German writer. (Seminar course with limited enrollment; only advanced students admitted.)

10:00 Fräulein Jolles.

36B. FRIEDRICH DÜRRENMATT. The development of his work and thought. Both his literary output and his theoretical works will serve as the basis for the course.

10:00 Frau Brock-Sulzer.

37A. THOMAS MANN. The life and works of the author will be the subject of a detailed seminar study. (Seminar course with limited enrollment; only advanced students admitted.)

9:00 Herr Lederer.

38B. MODERN LYRICS. The development of German lyrical poetry after Rilke to the present will be the subject of this lecture course.

11:00 Frau Kritsch Neuse.

II. Civilization

41. GERMAN HISTORY. A survey of the most important periods of German history with special attention to the last two centuries.

10:00 Herr Haas.

44. REGIONAL GEOGRAPHY OF CENTRAL EUROPE. The physical and cultural aspects of Germany today.

12:00 Herr Panzer.

44C. SCENERY AND ETHNOGRAPHY OF GERMANY (Landschaft und Volkstum im deutschen Sprachraum). This course will discuss the German Kulturlandschaft in terms of a man-made environment as developed by German settlers from early times to the present. Special attention will be paid to place-names, rural and urban settlements, and folklore within various historical periods and regions.

9:00 Herr Panzer.

III. Language

51. THE GERMAN LANGUAGE. An analysis of contemporary German. The vocabulary, grammatical forms, and syntax will be examined for their thought content and underlying structural forces.

12:00 Herr Tiller.

55. PRACTICAL PHONETICS. A study of the sounds, rhythm, and melody of spoken German with the objective of perfecting the student's pronunciation and expression. The classroom discussion will be supplemented by obligatory practice sessions in small groups on two afternoons and by intensive use of the Language Laboratory.

9:00 Herr Tiller.

57. STYLISTIC ANALYSES. Selected short texts, from the seventeenth century through the present, will be analysed and interpreted according to stylistic features. (Seminar course with limited enrollment; only advanced students admitted.)

12:00 Frau Brock-Sulzer.
IV. Language Practice

61. ADVANCED STYLISTICS. A course specially designed and obligatory for students who plan to attend a German university. Practice in writing seminar papers, taking class-room notes, and obtaining stylistic flexibility in the use of written German. (Attendance restricted to advanced students.)

8:00, 10:00 HERREN HAAS, SCHACHER; FRAULEIN MAUCHER.

62. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. A systematic study of style, shades of meaning, adequacy of expression. A thorough knowledge of German grammar is prerequisite for this course.

8:00, 11:00 HERREN KAYSER, RANK; FRAULEIN MAUCHER.

65. COMPOSITION. A systematic review of German grammar and syntax. Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty, proceeding from concrete observations to theoretical and abstract discussion.

8:00, 9:00 FRAULEIN ETTENBERGER, LEHRKÖRPER.

67. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. An intensive training in oral self-expression, in small groups. There will be a detailed program for each hour on specially assigned subjects. (Required for the Master's degree.)

8:00, 9:00, 11:00 LEHRKÖRPER.

69. INTERMEDIATE ORAL PRACTICE. For students who can show a fair knowledge of the spoken language but still need more fluency and accuracy of expression.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 12:00 LEHRKÖRPER.

Note: A written and oral test will be given for all new students on the Saturday preceding the opening of classes in order to determine the proper course level to which each student should be assigned.

V. The Teaching of German

71. METHODS OF TEACHING. A critical study and analysis of the current methods of modern language teaching on all levels from grade school to college. Emphasis will be laid on the practical approach to teaching and the use of such audio-visual aids as records, tape recorders, films, and other modern equipment. There will be critical discussions of textbooks as well as some practice teaching. The course is planned for prospective teachers or teachers of German in Graded Schools, High Schools, and Colleges.

10:00 FRAU KRITSCH NEUSE.

E. THE TEACHING OF GERMAN

71. Methods of Teaching

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

The Aims The school is primarily designed for advanced students who, possessing a fair speaking and reading knowledge of German, wish to perfect their ability to use it, and desire to deepen and broaden their acquaintance with German literature as well as with its cultural background and the soil on which it has grown. A limited number of undergraduates who are strongly recommended by their instructors may be admitted.
Accommodations  The School’s headquarters, dormitory for women, reading-room and bookstore are in Pearsons Hall, the same building in which fifty-one years ago the first German School was opened. Faculty and students dine together in Gifford Hall, rotating at tables according to a fixed schedule so that all may get better acquainted. After the weekday noon meal, German songs are sung in the Lounge in Alumni Hall. The historic Painter and Starr Halls and one floor of the new Allen Hall on the campus will again be the School’s dormitories for 1966.

Lectures and Plays  Beside a number of scheduled lectures, there will be readings, games, and plays after dinner on a regular schedule. “Literarische Sonntagsandachten,” not conflicting with local church services, will be held every Sunday morning.

Recreation and Sports  On the first two Saturdays, the school organizes trips or hikes into the near-by Green Mountains or to lakes in the Champlain Valley. Faculty members regularly participate in these outings, and students will enjoy this period of week-end relaxation during which the foreign language is used in an atmosphere different from that of the classroom. On some evenings all students are urged to join in the folk dances which are taught on the lawn at the foot of Pearsons.

Bookstore  At the Bücherstube in Pearsons Hall books used in the courses may be purchased; also other books imported directly from Germany will be offered for sale at moderate prices.

Opportunities for Service All waiters and waitresses in the German School dining hall must be able to speak German. Opportunity is therefore offered to a limited number of students to earn their board and a credit on the room fee in return for their service in the kitchen or dining hall. Those interested should file application blanks with the Director of the School before March 15.

Scholarships The German School offers several scholarships of $100.00 or more for the 1966 session. Besides these, three special scholarships are available:

The Martin Sommerfeld Memorial Scholarship, established by the students and faculty in memory of Professor Sommerfeld who taught in the summer of 1939.

The Arno Schirokauer Memorial Scholarship, established by FIDES in memory of Professor Schirokauer who formerly taught in the German School.

The Ernst Feise Scholarship, established by FIDES in honor of Professor Feise who was the Director of the School from 1931 to 1948.

These three scholarships are from $100 to $300 each. An unspecified number of scholarships by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany are offered. All are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application blanks may be obtained from the Director of the German School and must be filed before March 15. The awards and the appointments will be announced by April first.

Graduate School in Germany Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of German in Germany. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Mainz, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program of studies. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

FIDES Former students, faculty, and friends of the German School have formed a Vereinigung der Freunde der Deutschen Schule (FIDES) whose aim is to keep all friends of the school informed about its activities, and to preserve and promote the spirit of Verbundenheit between them. All members are cordially welcomed to visit the school during the summer.

Address Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School, should be addressed to Prof. Werner Neuse, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.
Scuola Italiana

(From July 1 to August 18)

The Italian School of Middlebury College was founded in 1932 by the late Dr. Gabriella Bosano. Dr. Camillo P. Merlino, of Boston University, was its Director for ten years, beginning with the 1938 session. Since 1947, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, of the Institute of Languages and Linguistics, Georgetown University, has been the Director.

The Visiting Professor for the 1966 session will be Carlo Alberto Mastrelli, Professor of Glottology at the University of Florence, who will offer a course on "La Questione Della Lingua" in the History of the Italian Language and a course on Modern and Contemporary Italian Writers. The staff will include Dr. Lidia Bianchi, Director of the Gabinetto Nazionale delle Stampe, in Rome, who will teach a course on Italian Art of the 16th through the 18th Centuries and a course on Giotto; Dr. Zina Tillona, of Boston University; and returning faculty members Dr. Pierina Castiglione, Dr. Giuliana Cavallini and Remo Trivelli.

Included among the gift scholarships available for the 1966 session are five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, two scholarships given by the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni (AMISA), five scholarships offered by UNICO National, and several Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships.

The sixteenth annual meeting of the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni (AMISA) will take place in Middlebury, July 15-17.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

1. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. A thorough review of the structure of the language; vocabulary building; written and oral practice, including free composition. This course aims to impart a reasonable degree of proficiency in spoken and written Italian. (Undergraduate credit only) 9:00 Signor Trivelli.

2. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. An advanced course for students possessing a good knowledge of Italian. It will consist of translations from English to Italian of texts of increasing difficulty, and practice in original composition. Frequent reference will be made to grammar and syntax in the systematic study of idioms. 9:00 Signora Castiglione.

4. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Intensive training in oral practice, public speaking and self-expression. A detailed program arranged for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation; short debates, oral reports, oral criticism of books and articles. 8:00 Signor Trivelli.

5. PHONETICS. A practical study of Italian Phonetics, based on the reading aloud of carefully chosen prose and poetry selections; emphasis not only on the correct pronunciation of Italian sounds, but also on the proper intonation of spoken Italian; classroom work will be integrated with extensive use of records and tape recordings. 10:00 Signora Castiglione.

6. STYLISTICS. This course is designed to meet, through carefully planned exercises, the needs of those who have already acquired general proficiency in the language. It aims to develop natural fluency, both in writing and speaking, through emphasizing the difference between what is merely correct and what is Italian. 9:00 Signorina Cavallini.

7. “LA QUESTIONE DELLA LINGUA” IN THE HISTORY OF THE ITALIAN LANGUAGE. The first part of this course will illustrate the “Questione della Lingua” as it affects the structure and style of Italian writings of the Cinquecento. In the second part of the course a study will be made of the development of the “Questione della Lingua” as it evolves through various periods up to the present day. 10:00 Signor Mastrelli.

II. Methods of Teaching

10. THE TEACHING OF ITALIAN. Discussion of methods and problems of teaching Italian to speakers of English; the application and implementation of contrastive analysis in constructing teaching materials; evaluation and adaptation of textbooks, audio-visual aids and other materials available for the teaching of Italian; assembling of material for classroom and laboratory use; development of an experimental course in Italian. 11:00 Signorina Tillona.

III. Literature and Culture

11. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. I. (To be offered in 1967.) (Eleventh through Fifteenth Centuries.)

12. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. II. (Sixteenth through Eighteenth Centuries.) The major contributions of Italian genius to the Western world in literature and in the arts will be considered against the historical background of the sixteenth through the eighteenth centuries. 12:00 Signorina Cavallini.

13. ITALIAN PROSE MASTERPIECES. (To be offered in 1967.)

14. DANTE AND HIS TIMES (THE PARADISO). In the course of three summers the Divina Commedia is read and analyzed in the light of the literary, political and religious ideals of the Middle Ages. In 1966 the Paradiso will be the object of special study. This course may be taken for credit in three successive summers.

8:00  Signor Castiglione.

15. SURVEY OF POETRY. A study of the main currents of Italian poetry, from the Duecento to contemporary times; brief consideration of the nature and techniques of Italian poetry; study and analisi estetica of some of its most significant examples.

10:00  Signorina Tillona.

16. MODERN AND CONTEMPORARY ITALIAN PROSE WRITERS. In this course a stylistic analysis will be made of the modern prose writers Verga and Fogazzaro and of the contemporary authors Pavese, Moravia, Pratolini and Calvino. Emphasis will be given to the interrelationship between the literary language and the artistic concepts of these writers on the one hand and the Italian language and Italian culture on the other.

11:00  Signor Mastrelli.

17. ITALIAN ART OF THE 16TH THROUGH THE 18TH CENTURIES. A study of representative figures and schools in the development of Italian art, from the 16th through the 18th centuries.

11:00  Signorina Bianchi.

18. GIOTTO. This course will be devoted to a consideration of Giotto, on the occasion of the 700th anniversary of his birth, and his influence on Italian art of the Renaissance.

12:00  Signorina Bianchi.

19. RESEARCH. All students, especially candidates for the doctorate who are working on a problem of research, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.

Signor Castiglione and Staff.

Credits  Course 2 (Adv. Grammar and Comp.) and Course 6 (Stylistics) may be taken twice for credit, as the material of the course varies each year. Course 14 (Dante) may be taken three times for credit, once on the Inferno, once on the Purgatorio, and once on the Paradiso.

Life in the School

Italian Dormitories  Forest Hall West, one of the most attractive buildings on the Middlebury College campus, is the Italian School's main dormitory and dining hall. Equipped with several social rooms and surrounded by spacious lawns shaded by trees, this dormitory lends itself to the development of an atmosphere of friendly informality so conducive to "oral practice"—one of the main features of the Middlebury experience. A section of the new Allen Hall is also allocated to the Italian School. Dr. and Mrs. Castiglione and other faculty members reside on campus, thus actively promoting the spirit of good fellowship in an Italian atmosphere, and making the student feel that the exclusive use of Italian is both a natural and an enjoyable exercise.

The Director's Office is in the Language Center.

The Italian Dining Room  In the attractive dining hall of the Italian School, the hum of conversation is natural and spontaneous. Prompted and guided by understanding instructors who preside at each table, the students quickly overcome their linguistic shyness. In order to get better acquainted with one another and with all the instructors, students are required to rotate according to a fixed schedule.

Activities  The morning hours will be given over to class work, leaving the afternoon free for recreation and study. Students and teachers will meet frequently in the evening for readings, lectures, choral assemblies, and social gatherings. All students are expected to take part in the weekly choral assembly and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs.
The school picnics, tennis, the popular game of "bocce," volley ball, as well as hiking, afford further pleasant relaxation.

Books A well-balanced and constantly expanding collection of Italian books, housed in the College Library, amply provides for the needs of the students. In addition, textbooks and other aids for the teaching of Italian will be available for examination. In Forest West there is also an Italian bookshop at which students will be able to purchase the texts required for class work, as well as dictionaries and a variety of books of classic and modern Italian literature.

Scholarships For the summer of 1966, a number of scholarships are available. These will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Director before April first; awards will be announced about April 15. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

The Italian Teachers' Club of Hartford, Conn., Scholarship, offered for the twenty-seventh consecutive year.

Two scholarships given by the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni (AMISA), one in memory of Mrs. Lena D. Wolff, and the other in memory of Gordon MacKenzie.

Five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, of New York City.

A number of Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships, made possible by a gift from the Cesare Barbieri Endowment.

Five scholarships offered by UNICO National.

Self-Help Another important way in which students may assist in defraying their expenses is by waiting on table in the Italian School dining room. All waiters and waitresses are students at the school who are able to use Italian exclusively in the dining room. The remuneration for this service is board, and a credit on the room charge. Those interested should make application to Dr. Castiglione before April first; awards will be announced about April 15.

AMISA Membership in the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni, established in 1950, is open to students, past and present, faculty members and friends of the Italian School. The aims of the Association are "to encourage and advance, culturally and materially, the Italian School," to keep its members informed of the activities of the School and its students, and to maintain the spirit of cordiality which the members associate with the Italian School.

Graduate School in Italy Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of Italian in Italy. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Florence, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College for the Middlebury Master of Arts degree. See the inside back cover.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning admission, credits, and choice of courses should be addressed to the Director of the Middlebury College Italian Summer School, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.

Correspondence concerning fees, rooms, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.
Initiated in 1958 by a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation, the Institute of Soviet Studies offers courses in Russian by outstanding native authorities in the fields of the sciences, economics, foreign policy, government, geography, the press and communist propaganda techniques. The Institute aims to give the specialist in these fields near-native fluency in Russian and competence in the technical terminology of his specialization, not only for reading and research, but also for oral use; and to train students for diplomatic, scientific and other careers. The courses are especially valuable for specialists, scientists, and students preparing for cultural exchange.

Organization Students enrolled in the Institute enjoy all the privileges and share in all the activities of the Russian School. They are pledged to the exclusive use of Russian; they share the dormitory and dining room facilities of the School; they attend the evening lectures, concerts, plays, and all other extra-curricular activities in the Russian atmosphere.

Admission Requirements Adequate command of Russian for advanced specialized study in the language, and its exclusive use in and outside the classroom. Previous training in one or more of the above-mentioned fields.

Credits and Requirements All courses in the Institute carry two credits toward the M.A. and the D.M.L. degrees. The Institute awards the M.A. degree in the field of Russian and Soviet Area studies. To satisfy the requirements for this degree, the candidate must take the following courses in the Russian School or their equivalents, previously approved by the Director:

Group I—21 or 23
Group II—one survey course of the 19th century (28, 30, 33, 34) and one course on contemporary literature (31 or 39) and one course on an individual author (29, 35, 38, 39)
GROUP III—a history or civilization course on the Tsarist Period and a history or civilization course on the Soviet Period offered in the Institute.
    Similar courses, offered in the Russian School, are also acceptable: (40, 41, 44, 46, 47) with the approval of the Director.

Admission The Institute is essentially a graduate school and the courses are of an advanced nature, requiring advanced preparation in Russian and in the field of specialization. All applicants must provide evidence of sufficient competence in Russian. A few undergraduates may be accepted if they are strongly recommended by their professors as having adequate preparation. Students may enter without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited for their advancement.
The Russian School of Middlebury College was founded in 1945 by the Director, Dr. Mischa H. Fayer. Starting with 40 students and a staff of four, the School's facilities and faculty have increased to accommodate 150 students. The rapid growth of the School testifies to the increasing need in our country for closer knowledge of Russia, past and present, and for deeper understanding of recent trends in her development. Mindful of this fact, the Director has organized a program of courses to answer present needs and to prepare American specialists in the field of Russian studies.

In addition to the specialized and technical courses offered by the Institute of Soviet Studies, the offerings of the Russian School will also be of great interest to government and armed forces personnel and to students of history, political science and the sciences. In its twenty-second session, the School, in combination with its Institute, is equipped as never before, to provide thorough training for students of Russia's humanistic culture, as well as for those preparing for teaching, diplomatic, scientific, and other careers.

One of the highlights of the session will be the twelfth "Alumni Weekend" (July 29-July 31).

The curriculum will include the following lecture and seminar courses: Stylistics, Contemporary Russian Literature, Russian Poetry of the Nineteenth Century, Leo Tolstoy: Writer and Moralist, Russian Short Story, Literary Criticism, and Methods of Teaching Russian. Institute courses are also open to qualified students in the Russian School. (See pages 46-51).

Evening Lectures  An especially rich extra-curricular program is planned, including lectures by members of the staff and guest speakers. These lectures are regularly held in the Russian Lounge.

The Curriculum  Survey courses are intended as a basis for more specialized courses in succeeding sessions. The research course (50) will afford opportunity for concentrated study on a subject of major interest. Except for certain basic courses offered every summer, advanced work is on a rotation basis, giving the student an opportunity to cover thoroughly, in a period of three or four years, the fundamental phases of Russian thought and letters.

Students in the Russian School may also enroll, without extra charge, for one or more of the specialized courses in the Institute of Soviet Studies, with the consent of the Director, if they have sufficient preparation in the special field.

Program for Teachers  To meet the urgent demand for Russian teachers at the secondary and college levels, a special three-year curriculum, also satisfying most of the requirements for the M.A. degree, was initiated in 1959 for qualified candidates. A special certificate will be issued to those completing 18 units in the required courses.

Prerequisites: Courses 11, 12, and 14 or equivalents
First Year: Courses 21, 22 and a 19th century survey course
Second Year: Courses 23, 24 or 25, one course in Group III
Third Year: Courses 29 or 35 or 38, and 290 or 291, and 60
Recommended Courses: 31, 32, 34, 35, 38, 39

THE COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

11. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION—FIRST LEVEL. Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty. Study of synonyms and idioms; dictation. Practical application of grammatical principles.  MRS. KALIKIN, MRS. KLIMOV.

12. ADVANCED CONVERSATION—FIRST LEVEL. Daily training in conversational Russian, designed to provide the student with assurance in self-expression and a basic active vocabulary. Oral reports and class discussions requiring active student participation. Facilities of the Language Laboratory will be used, including listening to tape recordings and self-testing.  MR. JANN, MRS. KLIMOV.

14. PHONETICS. A practical study of Russian phonetics, based on reading aloud selections from prose and poetry. The emphasis will be on correct pronunciation and intonation. Classroom work will be supplemented by intensive use of the language laboratory. Enrollment will be restricted to those most in need of remedial work.  MRS. VUKANOVICH AND STAFF.

15. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION—SECOND LEVEL. Study of the more complex points of grammar with special emphasis on the aspects and on verbs of motion. Practice in the use of idiomatic expressions. The work will consist of exercises, original compositions, and class discussions. MRS. ISYUMOV, MRS. KALIKIN.

21. ADVANCED COMPOSITION AND SYNTAX—THIRD LEVEL. Intended for students with a thorough knowledge of grammar. Intensive review of syntax. Original compositions on a great variety of topics. Class discussions. MRS. WOLKONSKY, MR. KALIKIN.

22. ADVANCED CONVERSATION—THIRD LEVEL. Oral analysis and criticism of assigned books and articles. Reading of newspapers and discussion of current events. Intended primarily to develop self-confidence in expressing ideas in Russian. MISS ALEXEIEFF, MR. JANIN.

23. STYLISTICS. Intended for students with native or near-native command of Russian who wish to develop greater precision in expression and a finer feeling for shades of meaning and style. Reading of texts of various types and difficulty will be combined with written compositions. MRS. KOSINSKI.

II. Literature

31. CONTEMPORARY RUSSIAN LITERATURE. The course will deal with the following periods: War Communism, NEP, Reconstruction, War of 1941–45, and the postwar years. The effects of Party directives, literary traditions and Socialist Realism will be studied. Attention will also be given to the most recent developments in Soviet literature and to Russian literary production outside the Soviet Union. MR. LIWSZYC.

33. RUSSIAN POETRY OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. A systematic study of Russian poetry from Zhukovsky to Blok, with special emphasis on Pushkin, Lermontov, Tyuchev and Nekrasov. Lectures, readings, oral reports and class discussions. MRS. KOSINSKI.

35. LEO TOLSTOY: WRITER AND MORALIST. While the study and analysis of Tolstoy's fiction will occupy a central position in this course, ample attention will also be given to his moral and philosophic writings. His work will be treated as a phase in the development of Russian literature, as well as a criticism of our civilization. The following works will be treated in detail: The Cossacks, War and Peace, My Confession, What is Art? and Master and Man. MRS. WOLKONSKY.

36. RUSSIAN SHORT STORY. Highlights of the short story of the 19th and 20th centuries. The major portion of the class time will be given to student discussion of stories read, with criticism and interpretation by the instructor. Intended for students desiring to combine extensive reading with oral expression. (Not open to students enrolled in any conversation course.) MR. ŽEKULIN.

37. LITERARY CRITICISM. The 19th century, known as the period of unusual development of Russian fiction, drama, and poetry, is no less important for the wealth of its contribution to Russian literary criticism. The work of outstanding critics, the emergence of various literary schools, the disputes on critical theory and practice will be presented. MR. ŽEKULIN.
III. Civilization

See Institute Courses 290, 291.

50. RESEARCH. Degree candidates, who are working on a problem of research in Russian language, literature and civilization, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the School staff. Personal consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.

Mr. Fayer,
with collaboration of members of the staff.

IV. Methods

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Russian To qualify for admission, students must be able and willing to speak only Russian during the entire session, even in their rooms and off campus. At the opening of the School each student will be required to pledge his word of honor to observe this rule. Although it is the duty of the faculty to enforce this rule at all times, their sympathetic encouragement to use the language freely will, in a short time, make it appear as the only language natural in the congenial, friendly Russian atmosphere. The School reserves the right to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule.

Living Accommodations  Stewart Hall, one of the newest and finest dormitories on the campus, is the headquarters of the Russian School. The view from Stewart lounge is superb. The Director’s Office is in the Language Center. In Proctor Dining Hall, students will eat in small groups, each table presided over by a member of the faculty. A system of rotation at meals provides opportunity for all to become better acquainted.

Activities All extra-curricular activities play an important part in mastering the language, and students are expected to participate actively. The schedule of classes is arranged to leave the afternoons free for study and recreation. Picnics, excursions to nearby lakes and mountains, “vecherinki” with musical and dramatic entertainments, lectures by instructors and guest speakers, informal singing, and Russian movies, provide ample recreational activity. Regular evenings for study of Russian dances have been set aside. Weekly sings are held in the Proctor Lounge. Several plays will be staged under the direction of Mr. Janin. The highlights of the session will include the twelfth annual Alumni Weekend—July 29–July 31.

Books In addition to textbooks, the Russian Bookstore, located in Atwater House, carries classics and up-to-date novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction. General supplies, and textbooks published in this country, may be purchased at the College Bookstore.

Realia Collection The purpose of this collection is to acquaint prospective teachers with visual aids which may prove helpful in their teaching; also to display material illustrative of the Russian creative genius—pictures, sculpture, icons, costumes, architectural models, objets d'art, etc., some of which are for sale. The Collection, housed in the Russian School Bookstore, will be open during regular Bookstore hours.

Language Laboratory Russian School students are urged to avail themselves of the excellent new facilities afforded by the Language Center. (See page 7). Mrs. Vukanovich will be available for assisting all those interested in improving their speech.
Self-Help  Students may assist in defraying their expenses by waiting on table in the Russian dining hall. The remuneration is board, plus a credit on the room charge. Those interested should apply to the Director before April first. Appointments will be announced about April 15.

Scholarships  A limited number of scholarships of $50 to $100 is available. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance are eligible. These scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application must be made to the Director before March 15. Awards will be announced about April first. The Alumni Organization also provides a Scholarship. Application should be made to the President or Secretary of the organization by March 15. Only former students of the Russian School are eligible.

The Margaret L. Fayer Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a returning student under the auspices of the Alumni organization of the Russian School. Applications should be sent to the Director before March 15.

The Anastasia Pressman Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a student working for a graduate degree at Middlebury, preferably a prospective teacher of Russian. Application should be made to the Director before March 15.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School or the Institute should be addressed to Dr. Mischa H. Fayer, Director of the Russian Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
THE SPANISH SCHOOL, will celebrate its Fiftieth Anniversary this summer. The school looks back with satisfaction on its standing and achievements as one of the leading centers of Spanish studies in the United States. It also looks ahead for still greater quality and performance in realizing its academic goals.

A group of distinguished professors, old and new members of our faculty, will lecture on important aspects of the Spanish Language and Spanish and Latin-American Literature and Civilization, principally on present-day trends: Visiting Professor Gonzalo Sobejano, from Columbia University, on Spanish Literary Criticism in the 20th century, and on the Post-Civil War Novel in Spain; Raúl Castagnino, Visiting Professor, from the Universidad de la Plata (Argentina) on Trends of Latin-American Literature up to 1900, and on Stylistics; Baltasar Isaza Calderón, Visiting Professor from the National University of Panama on Andrés Bello and his works, and on Problems of the Spanish Language; José García Lora, from the University of Birmingham (England) on Lope de Vega and his Followers, and on the 20th Century Spanish Theater; Ramón Piñeiro, from Santiago de Compostela (Spain), on Ortega y Gasset and the European Culture in Spain, and on the 20th Century Spanish Essay; José Olivio Jiménez on Spanish Poetry after the Civil War and on Spanish-American Poetry after Vanguardism; Narciso Bruzzi Costas on the History of the Spanish Language and on Spanish Poetry of the Middle Ages; Director Emilio González López on the 19th Century Spanish Novel; Manuel Alvarez Morales on Ten Representative Novelists of Latin-America; Manuel Asensio on The History of Spanish Civilization; and Ramón Alvarez Silva on the History of Latin-American Civilization.

In celebration of its Fiftieth Anniversary, the Spanish School offers a symposium on contemporary trends in Spanish and Latin-American Literature and Criticism.

Those interested in perfecting their ability in the Spanish language can count on the guidance of a group of expert teachers of Phonetics and Grammar who have made our school the best known in the field.

Requirements for Degrees Candidates for the Master’s Degree must pass, before the completion of their work, an advanced course in each of the following subjects: Oral Practice, Grammar, Composition, Phonetics, and Methods, i.e. Courses 1, 2, 3, 4 and 10. In addition, at least 10 credits must be earned in the fields of Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and Civilization. Students who have transferred credit for an equivalent course taken elsewhere may request release from the requirement. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, the program changes yearly in a cyclic form.

Books General supplies and text books published in this country may be purchased at the College Bookstore, in the Student Union Building. The Librería of the Spanish School is located in the social room of Hepburn Hall. Here the required books in the literature and civilization courses, and other titles printed abroad, are on sale.

The College Library has a Spanish library of over 7,000 titles, covering the areas of language, literature, history and civilization, selected to fill the needs of the students at every level. Representative periodicals of Spain and Spanish America are received, in order to inform the students of the most recent trends in literature and education in the Spanish speaking world.

Accommodations One of the most attractive features of the school is the friendliness which exists between the faculty and students, in no small measure due to the fact that the faculty and staff, as well as all students, reside in the dormitories. Gifford and Hepburn Halls provide attractive and comfortable accommodations. All members of the school take their meals together in the Proctor Dining Hall. A system of rotation provides an opportunity for all to become better acquainted.
The offices of the Director and Dean are in the new Sunderland Language Center.

Activities Activities outside the classroom are an important feature of life in the Spanish School. Whether it is a picnic, a game of croquet, a tennis or golf match, a dance or a hand of cards, the object is to live it and play it in Spanish and to broaden one's acquaintanceship with every phase of Spanish life and customs. The singing of Spanish folk songs, the presentation of good Spanish theatre, the attendance of Spanish moving pictures, all are designed to add to the student's enjoyment and knowledge.

Scholarships A few scholarships of $100 each will be available this summer. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance, are eligible. These awards will be made on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Dean before March 15. The awards will be announced by April first.

The Juan A. Centeno Memorial Scholarship was established in the summer of 1949 by the students and faculty of the Middlebury Spanish Summer School, in memory of the beloved teacher who was Director of the School for fifteen years. The fund is still growing, and further contributions will be gladly received. The income from this permanent fund provides a scholarship for a specially deserving student in the Spanish School.

Self-Help A limited number of students may earn their board and a credit on their room charge by acting as waiters and waitresses in the Spanish dining-halls. Those interested should apply to the Dean before March 15; awards will be announced by April first.

Graduate School in Spain Middlebury College also conducts a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year in Madrid, studying under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College for the Middlebury Master of Arts degree. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Correspondence Communications regarding admission, courses, credits and other academic information should be addressed to Prof. Samuel Guarnaccia, Dean of the Spanish Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning fees and rooms should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
Middlebury College conducts a Graduate School of French in France, a Graduate School of German in Germany, a Graduate School of Italian in Italy, and a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. Sixty-nine American students are now enrolled in the University of Paris under this plan; forty students at the University of Mainz; thirteen at the University of Florence; and sixty-two in Madrid.

The students spend the academic year on a coordinated program of advanced instruction in linguistics, phonetics, literature, history, the arts and social institutions. These courses are followed in the Faculties or other divisions and institutes, or in specially arranged graduate study, in Paris, Mainz, Florence, and Madrid. The students work under the close guidance and supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. At the close of the year, final examinations are administered under his direction, and the successful candidates receive the Middlebury Master of Arts degree, in addition to any foreign certificates or diplomas which they may earn.

A preliminary summer of preparation at the Middlebury Summer School is normally required, and only those who prove themselves qualified are allowed to enroll. Members of the group are treated as mature graduate students. They make their own arrangements for transportation, board and room, with the advice and guidance of the Middlebury Director. The Director facilitates worthwhile social contacts, and assists their plans for travel, visits to museums, and attendance at theaters and concerts. Each member is officially enrolled as a graduate student at Middlebury College, and pays his tuition fee to the college; this covers all enrollment, examination, and other academic fees abroad.
